

MENAFATF

Accession Criteria

Version 2

December 2017

The MENAFATF Accession Criteria and the annexed Memorandum of Accession were adopted by the 4th MENAFATF Plenary Meeting in November 2006. They were amended by the 26th MENAFATF Plenary Meeting on 7 December 2017 in Manama, Kingdom of Bahrain.

MENAFATF Accession Criteria

First: Criteria of accession to the MENAFATF membership.

The following criteria should be taken into account when any new country applies for the MENAFATF membership:

- 1- The applicant country should be an Arab country in the MENA region.
- 2- The applicant country should have laws promulgated to combat money laundering and financing of terrorism, or at least laws are underway to take efficient steps and arrangement to promulgate them.
- 3- The applicant country should apply or be taking steps and measures to commit to the implementation of UN conventions and Security Council Resolutions relevant to AML/CFT.
- 4- The applicant country should adopt the FATF Recommendations and the International Standards on Combating Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism and Proliferation, and any amendments thereto.
- 5- The accession of this country should not affect the MENAFATF competent and efficient work.

Second: Criteria of holding an observer status at the MENAFATF.

The following criteria should be taken into account when applying for an observer status at the MENAFATF, whether by countries outside the region or international and regional organizations, or countries from the region that applied for the MENAFATF membership, but the applications have not been decided on yet:

- 1- The country should be outside the region and be compliant with the International Standards on AML/CFT.
- 2- The country should be from the region, where it applied for the MENAFATF membership which has not been decided upon yet.
- 3- The organization should be international or regional, and it should not work according to private sector mechanisms.
- 4- The applicant country or organization should be experienced in AML/CFT and should determine the objectives sought behind holding an observer status at the MENAFATF, the results that would benefit it, the fields in which it could ensure support and assistance to the MENAFATF in its work, as well as the expected benefits for the MENAFATF if it held the observer status.
- 5- The applicant organization should have a prominent role in the field of its work.
- 6- Holding the post of an observer at MENAFATF by a country/organization should not affect the MENAFATF continuous competent and efficient work.

- 7- It should be one of the counterparts FATF Style Regional Bodies that has granted the status of "Associate Member" in FATF, and it should approve of the reciprocity principle through offering MENAFATF the observer status.

Third: Implementation steps for joining the MENAFATF (Members and Observers):

The following implementation steps should be adopted in terms of joining the MENAFATF membership or holding an observer status at it:

- 1- A letter should be addressed to the MENAFATF president- via the Secretariat- and signed by an official party entitled to represent the country's government or by the president of the organization, provided that the letter explicitly includes the following:
 - The government's/organization's desire to join MENAFATF/hold an observer status.
 - Pledge to commit to the MOU and any future amendment, and support MENAFATF objectives listed in Clause 1.
 - Contribute to the financing of the MENAFATF budget according to the value of contributions set by the Plenary of the MENAFATF in this regard (with respect to accession applications to the MENAFATF membership).
 - Take part in mutual evaluations in terms of being subject to evaluation, ensuring experts to participate in the evaluation of other countries, as well as commit to efficient participation in all the other MENAFATF activities and works.
 - Take part in the MENAFATF activities, especially in the field of technical assistance & training, and typologies (with respect to the post of an observer).
 - Define the objectives of the country/organization behind its application for the post of an observer, as well as the benefits of the MENAFATF behind that, and the services and assistance the country/organization could provide to support the efforts of the MENAFATF.
- 2- The MENAFATF president forwards the request to all member countries.
- 3- He also acknowledges the receipt of the application to the country/organization in writing. He states that the necessary measures will be adopted and includes in his letter the date of the plenary meeting during which a decision would be made.
- 4- Applications would be examined during the next Plenary in case they were submitted 90 days at least before the date of the meeting. However, if they were submitted within 90 days before the meeting, they will be examined during following the plenary meeting.
- 5- Present the applications before the plenary session which will be discussed by the member countries. All decisions on Membership and Observers will be unanimous.
- 6- Discuss the forwarded applications in the next meeting in case they were not decided on.

- 7- In case of approval of the application, the president of the MENAFATF- via the Secretariat- writes to the country/organization, as well as the remaining members about the plenary meeting's approval.
- 8- The share of each country in financing the budget will be recalculated in light of the approval of the new country's membership, as of the following budget.
- 9- The government's representative's signature of the memorandum of accession of a government to the MOU between the governments of member countries in MENAFATF for AML/CFT (enclosed).
